

From Staffordshire Smart Alert
To clerk@stowe-by-chartley-pc.gov.uk
Reply-To reply@neighbourhoodalert.co.uk
Date Mon 19:52

Summary Headers Plain text

To protect your privacy remote resources have been blocked. Allow

Crime update

We have charged a man with 10 offences, after a series of reports were made to Police of a suspicious male, trying car doors and attempting to enter peoples property, on the Burleyfields housing estate in Stafford.

In the early hours of Saturday 12th October, Tony Fellows, aged 44 from the Stafford area was located by officers, attempting to hide behind a vehicle on Pickering Croft , Stafford. Fellows was pursued by officers after trying to escape but was found a short time later and arrested at the scene.

Fellows was charged with x2 attempt burglary, x2 attempted theft from motor vehicle and x6 counts of vehicle interference.

 Message Sent By
Lyndsey Brough
(Staffordshire Police, PCSO, Stafford)